

Motorola Pre-licensed Terminal Emulation Client Matrix

The following matrix provides a list of the Motorola Mobile Computers that come pre-licensed and/or pre-loaded with the Wavelink Terminal Emulator (TE) client. Having the TE client pre-licensed on select Motorola Mobile Computers enables our customers to get their enterprise mobility solutions up and running faster and easier. It also helps increase productivity of mobile workers and provides a faster return-on-investment for the entire Motorola mobility solution.

For more detailed information on TE, please visit www.motorola.com/teclient.

TE Software Support Agreements are available for purchase for all Motorola mobile computers. In addition, hardware support agreements for pre-licensed mobile computers include coverage for the pre-licensed TE client. A support agreement is required for technical support and free upgrades. Please contact your Motorola Sales Representative for more details.
